

Snazzy Baby's My Baby's Own Deluxe Travel Chair Review and Giveaway

Have you ever been in a situation where you did not have a high chair or booster seat for your little one? There were many times I was out and about and found myself at places, whether it was a friend's house or a coffee house and I did not have a place for Chloe to sit, except on my lap. Chloe is getting to the age where she wants to be more independent. She wants to be like her big sister, sitting on a big girl chair. Plus, sitting on my lap does not really work well during feedings. Snazzy Baby has come up with a perfect solution, My Baby's Own Deluxe Travel Chair a portable high chair seat that fits little ones up to 35 pounds.

You are probably familiar with other travel boosters that are "portable", you can take them with you to restaurants, grandma's house or anywhere else you are on the go. Snazzy Baby's Travel Chair is so much better, because it is ultra-portable! It is made of material, so it folds up very small and fits right into the attached bag, weighing less than 7 Oz. You can store it in your diaper bag or keep it in the trunk of your car so you will always have it when you need it. I love how easy it is to use, simply buckle the straps around the back of a chair or shopping cart seat and then secure your child with the side and shoulder straps.

I will never forget the time I was at Target. Chloe was in the shopping cart, I was looking at something for what seemed like 2 seconds, when I turned back to the cart, Chloe was standing on the seat with a look-what-I-can-do-mom! expression on her face. My heart stopped beating and from that day on, until I received Snazzy Baby's Travel Chair, those icky-yucky straps that have probably never been washed, secured my daughter. I know, I am a nut, I would take spray sanitizer and spray those things down, but I could not risk having her tumble out of the cart! With the travel chair, I now just come home, throw it in the wash and let it line dry. With the travel chair, I no longer have to worry about Chloe's cool and very dangerous shopping cart tricks and she is comfortable while being secure in her seat.

I am not the only one who loves Snazzy Baby's My Baby's own Deluxe Travel Chair, it is an iParenting Media Award winner for best baby gear. You can view the video of the travel chair from the ABC expo: Watch TDbmonthly Video
